Juvenile Waiver to Adult Jurisdictions & Juvenile Competency to Waive Miranda Rights

Antoinette Kavanaugh, PhD, ABPP is board certified in forensic psychology by the American Board of Professional Psychology. She is the former clinical director of the Juvenile Justice Division—Cook County Juvenile Court Clinic, served as a clinical professor at Northwestern University's School of Law for ten years, is a lecturer at the Feinberg School of Medicine, Northwestern University, Chicago, IL and is an alumna of the American Psychological Association's Leadership Institute for Women in Psychology. In private practice since 1999, Dr. Kavanaugh evaluates youth and adults on a variety of forensic issues including competence to understand Miranda rights, competence to stand trial, transfer to adult court, wrongful convictions, ability to form intent, disputed confessions, pleas of not guilty by reason of insanity, mitigation and capital cases, and has been retained in multiple Miller v. Alabama cases. Additionally, she testifies regularly in state and federal courts. As an author, Dr. Kavanaugh writes in the area of forensic training, forensic evaluations, and providing useful clinical information to the court. She also conducts presentations and consults with a variety of national organizations, including the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, on issues related to juvenile justice and adolescent development and trains clinicians on how to conduct forensic evaluations.
